

SPACE FOR PERSONALITIES.

Since 1365.

The University of Vienna is internationally renowned for its excellence in teaching and research, and counts more than 7,500 academics from all disciplines. This breadth of expertise offers unique opportunities to address the complex challenges of modern society, to develop comprehensive new approaches, and educate the problem-solvers of tomorrow from a multidisciplinary perspective.

At the Centre for Translation Studies, the University of Vienna seeks to appoint a

Full Professor of Interpreting Studies with a Focus on Technology

The position:

Applicants are expected to represent the field of interpreting studies as broadly as possible and show a clear interest in technological developments in the field of interpreting, for instance remote interpreting, computer-assisted interpreting (CAI) tools and speech-to-text interpreting with automatic speech recognition. Candidates should be able to address current academic and technological developments both in their own research and in the courses they will teach and also be in a position to actively network with the international scientific community and industry representatives. Applicants' working languages are German, English, and ideally at least one other language offered at the Centre for Translation Studies.

Your academic profile:

- Doctoral degree/PhD
- Outstanding research achievements, excellent publication and funding record, international reputation
- Proven leadership qualities
- Gender and diversity competence
- Experience in designing and managing large research projects
- Enthusiasm for excellent teaching and supervision at the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral level
- Willingness to take on organisational and administrative responsibilities within the Center and/or the University

The University of Vienna expects the successful candidate to acquire, within three years, proficiency in German sufficient for teaching in bachelor's programmes and for participation in university committees.

We offer:

- a dynamic research environment
- a wide range of research and teaching support services
- attractive working conditions in a city with a high quality of life
- an attractive salary according to the Collective Bargaining Agreement for University Staff ($98 UG, level A1, to be negotiated individually) and an organisational retirement plan
- a "start-up package", in particular for the initiation of research projects
- comprehensive relocation support
