Since 1365.

The University of Vienna is internationally renowned for its excellence in teaching and research, and employs more than 7,500 academics from all disciplines. This breadth of expertise offers unique opportunities to address the complex challenges of modern society, to develop comprehensive new approaches, and educate the problem-solvers of tomorrow from a multidisciplinary perspective.

At the University of Vienna seeks to appoint a

Käthe-Leichter-Visiting Professor in Feminist Studies in the Humanities and Cultural Studies Focus: Social Inequality: Wealth Transfer between the Genders and Generations

75% part-time position, for the period September 15, 2025 to February 28, 2026.

The position:

Founded by the Austrian Ministry of Science in 1998 to promote feminist research, the visiting professorship at the University of Vienna looks back on a long tradition. Käthe Leichter was a pioneer scientist of social science and women's studies. Born Marianne Katharina Pick in Vienna in 1895, she was also the founder and first director of the Women's Department at the Vienna Chamber of Labor (Wiener Arbeiterkammer). Käthe Leichter was murdered in the Bernburg euthanasia center in 1942. The Käthe Leichter Visiting Professorship is awarded by the Gender Committee of the Faculty of Historical and Cultural Studies and the Faculty of Philological and Cultural Studies, with a different thematic focus each time.

For more information about previous Käthe Leichter Visiting Professors, please visit the Gender Committee's homepage: <http://genderausschuss.univie.ac.at/kaethe-leichter-gastprofessur/>

The successful applicant will teach three courses (two with continuous assessment and one lecture, totaling six hours per week during the semester), as well as one academic talk open to the public. The Käthe Leichter Professorship is assigned either to the Faculty of Historical and Cultural Studies or the Faculty of Philological and Cultural Studies, depending on the focus of the professorship. A presence of 5.5 months is required. The weekly courses as well as the public lecture are to be held in person.
